Dear Mr. Algrant:

Thank you for your note of 11 December 1959 requesting copies of my recent address in New York City before the UN. I am sending you five copies via Mr. Robert Phillips, as requested, and hope that you will find them useful.

Best wishes for the holiday season.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Would it be possible for me to obtain a few copies of your recent address before the N.A.M.? If so I would appreciate it if you would have them addressed to me c/o Mr. Robert Phillips, Chile Desk Officer at State, unless you prefer some other method. Thank you very much.

I have the feeling we are now embarked on the most dangerous of all wars and that
